I know you wipe some away
But these handprints were made to stay.
So keep them forever,
a treasure they'll be.
A special "I Love You," for you from me.

The Hands of a Child

by Amy Ethridge

When you look at the hand what do you see? There are just some lines most would agree.

But take a closer look this very minute
And notice the treasures that are found within it.

The hand can be so many things,
From tulips to beautiful butterfly wings.

A Santa, an apple, even a heart,
A pumpkin, an umbrella, that's only a start.
The hand can be snowflakes that fall from the sky.
The hand can be a leprechaun trying to hide. It can be the sunshine to brighten the day.

It can be a fish swimming away.
It can be a turkey strutting along,
Whatever you make it, you can't go wrong.

Just take a little time to look and see, where these hands came from,

And you'll surely agree
Your child, the artist, reaching his goal,
Created this for you with body and soul.
Keep it and use it till the time has passed.
Then put it away so the memories will last.

Snowflakes

Snowflakes
white are dancing down.
Dancing, dancing all

Each one is different, it's surely true.
Here's one I made from me for you!

two red apples
